

Office Spaces in a Green Community!

Even if you are an independent consultant or have a small organization, now you can afford space in the greenest building in Berkeley: the David Brower Center in downtown Berkeley! You can be part of the Sustainable Enterprise Cluster, a grouping of small companies, organizations and consultants involved with environmental and social sustainability.

Participants in the Cluster benefit from the active community of 30 organizations in the Brower Center.

Office spaces are $675/month. Cluster members have WIFI, printing, use of a conference room and conference phone, and access to the Brower Center's tremendous amenities. For more information see www.browercenter.org, and www.enviroinstitute.org.

For more information, email info@enviroinstitute.org

The David Brower Center is located at 2150 Allston Way, Berkeley, CA 94704.
The Center is 1 block from Downtown Berkeley BART, and close to public parking.